Annwyl Pawb

Unfortunately, Miss Price continues to be unwell and will not return until at least 23 October. Mrs Devlin will teach the class for the next three days and Mrs Godfrey will return for the end of the week and continue until half term or Miss Price returns, whichever is the sooner.

The Governors held their first formal meeting of the year on Wednesday. Mrs Gillian Thomas was re-elected as Chair and Mrs Sue Goodhead elected as vice-chair. Mr Ade Cavenagh resigned as a governor and we thank him for his sterling work in that role over the last few years. We were pleased to welcome Mrs Jan Owen as the new non-teaching staff Governor.

Due to circumstances completely beyond the control of the school, we very much regret that we will not be able to proceed with the drama lessons at the present time.

Thank you to the parents that have approached the parent governors and school regarding school uniform and as a result of your comments I can confirm that the uniform policy has been changed to include a "white or red" polo shirt for daily wear, and a plain t-shirt (no logos or words, any colour) for PE. Plain red jumpers or cardigans are a suitable alternative to the official red sweatshirt, but no hoodies please, except the specific Y6 leavers hoodies.
