

Lyndon Green Junior School

With half term approaching rapidly(next Friday) we always like to reflect on what we have done over the last 7 weeks. It has been incredibly busy with new topics, changes to what we have to teach and always trying to be better. I would hope that if you ask the children what it has been like, then they would say fun! (crosses fingers) It has been another manic week and I am sure that next week will be the same. We wouldn't have it any other way!!

Happy and Sad news

Next Friday will be the last day we get to see Miss Edwards for awhile. That's the sad news. The exciting part she is leaving to have her baby, making the Lyndon Green Junior School family even bigger. I know 4E and everyone here will be sad to see her leave but excited for her also.

Class 4E will get to meet someone special on Monday. Parents look out for a letter on Monday.

Pastoral Team

Thank you to everyone that attended the Pastoral team meeting yesterday. This was a simple invitation to everyone to come into school and meet the staff that make up this team and to see what extra support we can offer as a school.

Parents Evening

We look forward to seeing everyone over the two evenings next week. (Tuesday and Thursday) This will give you the chance to meet the class teachers; to discuss how well your children have settled in and what progress they have made since the beginning of term. Each appointment is only brief and we will aim to stick to those times. Could I ask that if you need further time then make an extra appointment at a later date. Mrs. Green (Inclusion Manager) Mrs. Pitt and myself will also be available.

Sports

Another busy week.

Cross Country relay this week with only 4 children running in each team. The boys managed 4th place and the girls 3rd. Brilliant effort! Last race next week before the winter break. Everyone welcome.

Football Two wins in the league this week against Mapledene and The Rosary. Great start to the league campaign.

Tag Rugby First tournament played of the season and a great result to finish runners up.

Thanks to everyone that has participated this week.

Attendance News

Wow, such a disappointing week this week, a huge drop to only 96.39% Still there has to be a winner

5th place - Classes 3J & 5J - 96.94%

4th place - Classes 3C & 6D - 97.22%

3rd place - Class 6G - 97.70%

2nd place - Class 4B - 97.70%

1st place - Class 4D - 98.33% Well done, again!!

Lost Property.

You wouldn't believe how many jumpers and cardigans we have as lost property. We are aiming to return them to their rightful owners but the task is made harder by having no names in them. Please could you check that your children's uniforms are clearly labelled.

Have a super weekend, Mr. R.
