

LYNDON GREEN

Junior School

I cannot believe we are only a week away from half term, it has gone so quickly. It has been a fun packed half term, next week will be the same with lots planned. Have a super weekend, Mr. R

School Open

Just a reminder that it is Lyndon Green Infant School closed on Friday 23rd October. We will be open as usual from 8.50 for a very busy day.

Residential

We hope the children that have attended the Y4 residential this week have had a brilliant time. Unfortunately no wifi, so thank you to all the parents who often wait nervously for remaining calm. We did it retro style. Remember the days before Twitter and social media? #bliss Thanks again to the staff that have made it possible, it is much appreciated.

Sponsored Walk

We have sent out all the information for next weeks sponsored event, it would be great if we could raise as much money as we can, this will allow us to support the brilliant causes that were mentioned on the letter. The themes this year are all linked to the different year groups topics. I am looking forward to seeing what everyone comes up with, especially Year 4. I wonder how many walking digestive systems we will see? It should be a great afternoon.

October Holiday Sports Camp

The Infant school are running a multi sport camp throughout the half term holiday. If you would like a letter with more information then please collect one from the office.

School Photos

Reminder that any slips for cross school photos need to be returned asap so that the whole event can be co-ordinated. All the children will have their photo taken. Best hair all round on Tuesday 3rd November

Parents Evening

We look forward to welcoming you into school next Tuesday and Thursday evening for the first consultations of the year. Slips with times will either have come home or be coming home very soon.

Sports News

Cross Country - An eventful evening last night culminating in a second placed finish for the girls relay team. Thank you to everyone for your support. One race left - open to everyone

Football - Alan Fowles Cup qualification for the boys last Monday. Four games played, four wins. Through to the final against Mapledene.

Over to the girls next week and league fixtures for the boys. Busy, busy, busy.
