

Additional letters – There are a number of additional letters today. Due to the number of them I am listing them here. There are all available on the school website and via dojo:

- PFA fun events and fundraisers
- Parent forum Committee information leaflet
- Election of Parent Forum committee members letter
- Parent Forum committee Terms of Reference

National test timetable - Please see the timetable for Welsh National tests at the end of the newsletter. The reading and reasoning tests are paper based and the numeracy procedural tests are online computer based tests for the first time.

Parent Forum - Following on from the recent parent, school and governor meetings last term, the Governing Body is in the process of setting up a Parent Forum Committee as discussed. Information about the Parent Forum committee and how you can get involved accompanies this newsletter. We are aiming to have the first meeting before the half term.

PFA – Thank you to the members of the PFA, family and friends for the time and energy they put into improving our school grounds over the Easter break. We are very grateful for the support.

Petition Meeting report – This is now available on the school website in the Governing Body section. The follow up meeting with parents is on Wednesday 26th June at 6:30pm.

Music - With the national tests next week any pupil who misses a music lesson due to testing will have additional time over the following weeks.

Counselling – In light of Belle's bereavement counselling support is available for any pupil requiring it. Please contact the school office in the first instance.
