

Mrs Thomas is writing her moral story from last week but she hasn't finished yet. Can you help her mark her work before she can finish? Check for capital letters, missing punctuation and any spelling mistakes. Give her a comment at the end.

The Mystery of the Fle, the pig and the Water

hav you ever wondert about how the water got its reflection let me tell you the storee of how the peaceful waters got its reflection.

In ireland long long ago there were threa friends- the flea, the pig and the mole. Mole and Pig lovd each ova dearly and even though Pig and Flea spent time together thay hated each other Flea and Pig both loved Mole most of all for he was so king that they thought he must truly have a heart of gold.

Mole told the animals how friendship lights even the darkist nights even the darkest harts

one night Mole had an idea he would help Flea and Pig to become great friends by pretending he woz lost “tomorrow is the beginning of there road to friendship. I will sacrifice myself to do something kind so Flea and Pig can in turn be kind to each other.