

RE

Our topic this term will be based on Pentecost. This week we are talking about the good news that everyone has to tell.

Read the story The Jolly Postman by Allan Ahlberg.

You could ask your child the questions:

- Who received the good news?
- How did they receive the good news?
- How did they feel?

Activities to be completed:

- Tell your family about some good news that you have.
- Create a dance that shows their excitement when they hear the good news.
- Collect items of good news i.e. letters, cards, emails, photographs, certificates etc. which recall your or the children's good news.
