

Daily Challenge

To keep themselves entertained and to have fun during lockdown lots of people across the world have been recreating famous paintings. Would you like to join in the fun?

Look at this famous painting by Henri Rousseau.

What can you see?

What is the picture about?

How many different animals can you see?

Don't forget to share your wonderful art work with me by uploading them to Dojo or J2E.

I look forward to seeing them!