

The large grey castle stood on the top of a hill lined with trees. It had a huge wooden door with an impressive gold letterbox. The two tall towers were topped with red flags flying in the wind. Each tower had three thin windows. The door was guarded by a soldier with a sharp sword and heavy armour.

Can you write a paragraph to describe a castle now?