Dear Parents/Carers,

Your child has been provided with a 'Code of Conduct' which they are welcome to keep with them at home and at school.

The 'Code of Conduct' was developed through meetings with the Pupils, Parents/Carers, Teaching Staff and Governors. It aims to provide the whole school community with a clear, concise guide of expected behaviour.

Importantly, rewards are at the forefront of the guide – the school aims to reward & celebrate positive behaviour. Similarly, bad behaviour is described as a 'Choice'. The school reminds pupils that poor behaviour is a 'Choice' they make, and poor choices lead to 'Consequences'. We aim to reduce the number of poor choices being made!

I trust the 'Code of Conduct' will help strengthen key messages and provide our children with a clear message moving forward.

Yours faithfully,

Mr G. Phillips
