

Languages, Literacy and Communication

Our next story is “Superworm” by Julia Donaldson. Read the story together and then try the activities below – click on the picture to access the story online or you can hear Mrs Rudge reading it on our school web page!

wc 11 May Story Activities:

- Talk about the story together
- Look at some of the words together and point to some of the words whilst saying them out loud
- Encourage your child to tell you the story themselves
- Talk about their favourite part of the story
- What if something different happened at the end?
- Make your own story about a different animal that becomes a superhero.
- Use the book to create a collection of rhyming words and phrases. Could you use these to create your own rhyming story?
- Think of some words and phrases that are used to describe Superworm. Can you compare these to other descriptions of superhero characters?
- Look up the Welsh words for some mini-beasts and practise saying the words together: English to Welsh translation.

wc 18 May Story Activities

If you have finished all the Superworm activities, why not go on to read another Superhero book, Supertato! Click the picture to hear the story:

- Who is Supertato? What does he do in the story?
- Which book did you like best? Why was that one your favourite?
- Which fruit and vegetables do you like?
- The Welsh for potatoes is tatws. Can you say that? (pronounced Tatt-uss). Can you remember the Welsh words for the fruit and vegetables we sang about on St David's Day? Try learning some of the Welsh words below:

