

ACTIVITY TIME

Government and other adults must make sure that children are protected from harmful information. Films and computer games all have different classifications. How many different categories of classifications can you find?

List five really interesting things you've learnt this week. You might have learnt something from a friend; maybe you watched the news and a story really stood out; or perhaps one of your parents has wowed you with a fascinating fact.

Read or watch Goldilocks and the Three Bears. This tells you the story from Goldilocks' point of view. Imagine you are a reporter. Tell the story from the view of the baby bear.
