Dear

A huge well-done and thank you for adapting to the new organisation in school. It has been a pleasure to see the great positivity you have shown even when sometimes you may be hurting, frustrated or worried.

The half-term break next week will feel quite different to usual. If we all work together and keep to the rules, then we will be helping to keep all our families and friends safe and well. Enjoy the time at home with family; get lost in a story or book; be creative both indoors and out, on paper or in digital form; keep a diary; join in with the Swansea Science Festival; be active; take part in the Sumdog challenge; keep baking and stay positive.

Thank-you for:

- your warm smiles and morning and afternoon greetings on the gate;
- playing your part in keeping the whole Glyncollen community safe;
- for showing patience during indoor lunch breaks;
- your efforts, hard work and determination in class. It can be tricky at times but you are all making a fantastic effort to be the best you can be;
- welcoming the new members of our Glyncollen community and helping them feel a sense of belonging to our school;
- being individual and being you.

Keep safe and well. See you on Monday 2nd November.

Mrs Suzanne Hamilton
Acting Headteacher
