

A

- 1 What was the first thing that made Llewellyn cross?
- 2 What was the second thing that made Llewellyn cross?
- 3 Write down two words from the second paragraph that describe the way Gellert moved when his master came home.
- 4 Write down the words from the story that show it was the evening when Llewellyn came home.
- 5 Why did Llewellyn think Gellert had done something wrong?
- 6 What did Llewellyn think Gellert had done?
- 7 How did Llewellyn punish Gellert?
- 8 What should Llewellyn have done before he punished Gellert?

B

- 1 Why couldn't Llewellyn see his baby when he first went into the bedroom?
- 2 What was the first clue Llewellyn had that the baby was alive?
- 3 How can you tell that the baby wasn't upset by what had happened?
- 4 What would have happened if Gellert hadn't stayed in the castle?
- 5 How do you think Llewellyn felt when he found his baby was safe?

C

So that everyone will remember how brave Gellert has been, Llewellyn orders a statue to be made. The statue will show Gellert fighting the wolf. Around the base of the statue there is space for 100 words.

Re-tell the story of Gellert and the wolf in no more than 100 words.

Make sure your story makes it clear how brave Gellert was, and how sad Llewellyn was when he found out the truth.