Spring Term 2018

Welcome to the first edition of the Friends of Crymlyn newsletter. The aim of the newsletter is to keep you up to date with forthcoming events, funds raised and what the funds are contributing towards or purchasing for the school! We are always looking for help and new ideas, so come along and join us at one of our meetings or if you cannot make the meetings any help at our events would be very much appreciated. We hope to see you at some of our events this term and would like to thank you for your past and continued support.
