Friday 11th March

I hope that you all have had a good week. We are so looking forward to welcoming all the children back on Monday. We will continue to work hard to keep the children, staff and families as safe as we can.

Crossgates Service station have kindly agreed that staff can use their carpark while the work at Little Acorns continues. Hopefully this will help ease parking in the school carpark over the next few weeks.

Just a reminder of our drop off, pick up arrangements.

- The one-way system will still be in place.
- Bus children will come in at 9am and leave at 3.30pm
- Sibling groups will come in at 9.05am and leave at 3.20pm. Please wait by your youngest child's class and then make your way around the one-way system to your next pick up point.
- Individual children at 9.15am and 3.30pm.
- We are encouraging parents/carers and children to maintain social distancing. Please wear a facemask.

Breakfast club will be open from 8.05am. School lunches are available and transport is running.

RED NOSE DAY AT SCHOOL

Red Nose Day is back on Friday 19 March. The world needs a life-changing laugh more than ever, so we'd love you to join in the fun - at school or from home.

Non- school uniform for the day for a donation of at least £1

Come to school with a ready to go joke you can share with your friends and make them laugh.

We will be making superhero masks in school.
