Handprint Rudolph Christmas Card

Supplies

- Rudolf card template
- A small red pom-pom
- Brown paint
- Felt tip pens
- 2 pieces of A4 coloured card
- Plate or tray for paint
- Paintbrush
- PVA glue
- Scissors

1 In preparation, print the Rudolf template onto a piece of coloured card. Fold along the dotted line, then lay the card horizontal and flat ready for painting.

2 Now, colour in Rudolf's face using either paint or felt tip pens.

3 To create Rudolf's bright red nose, stick on a red pom-pom, using PVA glue.

4 Now, make Rudolf's antlers! To do this, use the paint brush to cover your left hand in brown paint. Then carefully print your hand on to the spare piece of card. Repeat this with your right hand, then leave to dry.

5 Once dry, use scissors to cut out both handprints.

6 Now, stick both handprints onto the top of Rudolf's head, so that the thumbs are on the inside. To do this, turn the handprints over, so that the painted side is facing down. Then, spread a little glue onto the reverse of each handprint, before placing them in position and gently pressing them down.

7 Once the card is dry you can Write a message inside!
