

The New Children

Book 1

First they went to the book corner.
There were lots of exciting books and there were three soft cushions to sit on.

One of the new children said,

Next they went to the play corner.
There was a shop and a telephone and a big box of dressing up clothes.
One of the new children said,

Next they went to the home corner.
There was a cooker and a sink and a table and four chairs.
The last of the new children said,

I want to play here.

At the end of the afternoon Miss Owen clapped her hands and said, 'Girls and boys, it's time to go home.'
'Oh no!' said the new children,

We want to play.

We want to play.
