

Hide and Seek Book 1

Pickle was a little kitten. She had soft brown fur and big green eyes. Sometimes she was a good little kitten and sometimes she was not so good.

One day Pickle wanted to play hide and seek.

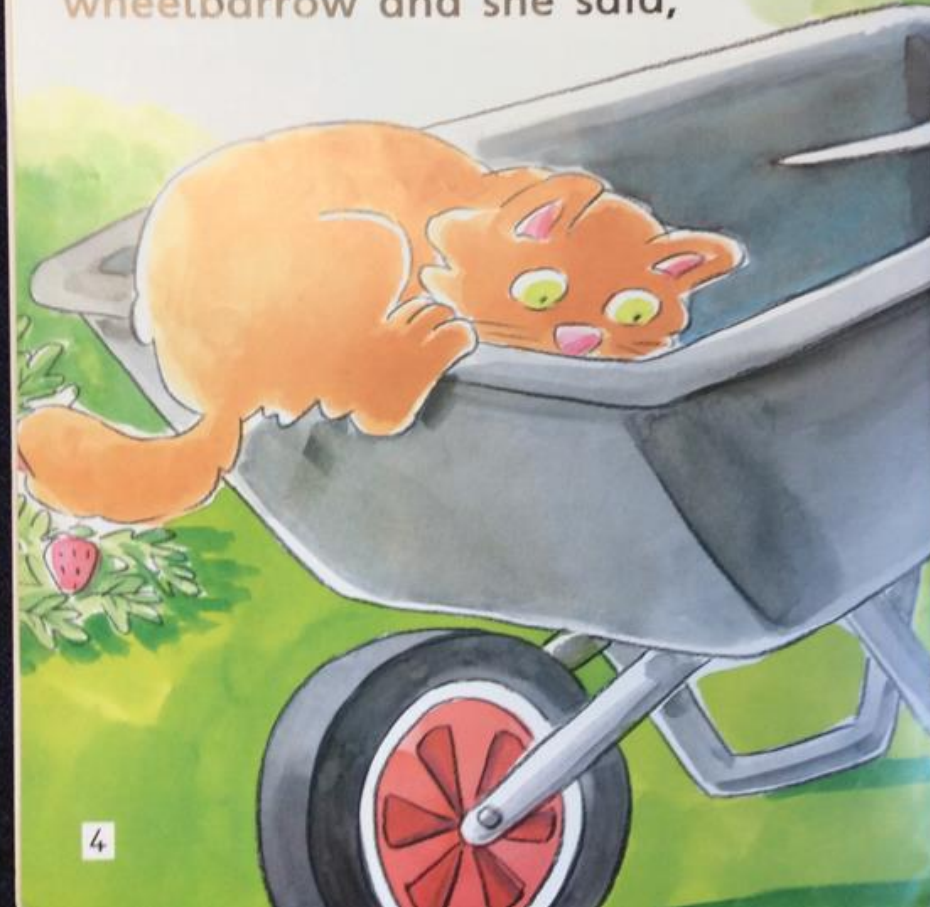

Pickle asked her friend Ginger to play hide and seek with her. Ginger found a place to hide. Pickle closed her eyes and counted to ten. First, Pickle looked in the strawberry patch and she said,

Are you in here?

But Ginger was not in the strawberry patch.
Pickle looked and looked but she could not find Ginger.
Then Pickle looked in the wheelbarrow and she said,

Are you in here?

But Ginger was not in the wheelbarrow.
Pickle looked and looked but she could not find Ginger.
Then Pickle looked in the flower pots and she said,

Are you in here?

But Ginger was not in the flower pots.
He was not in the wheelbarrow.
He was not in the strawberry patch.
'Where are you?' said Pickle.
'Here I am,' said Ginger,
