

Newsletter 14: Friday 15th March 2019

News: Our school in the community.

Ducklings; new; flash! Our Reception children in Hwyaidd Bach (which is Welsh for duckling) are busy naming the new arrivals as they hatch. We have four so far: Cuddles, Fluffy, Rainbow and Pepper.

Y1 and Y2 have been reading 'The Little Red Hen'. As part of World Book Day they had a 'Philosophy for Children' (P4C) session and also produced beautiful art work inspired by William Wordsworth's daffodil poem.

Y3/4 pupils have been learning about the Ancient Egyptian art of mummification, including all the gory details!

Y5/6 pupils enjoyed maths work linked to their new topic 'Stone Age'. They have also created an effective display inspired by the hand stencils in Upper Palaeolithic cave art. Feedback from Y6 pupils about World Book Day was that the teachers prepared some brilliant activities and that it was great fun. Many thanks to parents/carers for providing the children with such amazing costumes!

Many thanks to the parents/carers who helped us to celebrate our Dathliad Cymraeg day; our celebration of Welsh language and culture.

Competition winners included: (Reception) Travis, Ruby, Mason, Luke, Blake, Alexandra, Owen, Roseabella, (Eryr) Esme, (Gwenol) Tilly, Ellis, Charlie, (Y3) Betsy, Stan, Darcie, Seren, Evie, (Y4) Alice, Holly, (Y5/6) Sophie, Yasmin Seren, Elsie, Menna, Grace and Dylan.
