PANTOMIME COMES TO ACLE PRIMARY!

The children had an unexpected chance to enjoy a wonderful pantomime performance yesterday, when a cancelled school booking meant that M and M theatrical productions could come to us instead and put on their pantomime of Aladdin (free of charge).

This was a great opportunity for all the children to enjoy live theatre of a very high quality at close hand. We all had a great time watching the show, from the youngest pupils to the oldest.

Here are some pictures of the production:

Parents' Evenings

As usual, we shall be holding our Spring Parents' Evenings after the February half term, on 12 and 13 March.

The first evening will be the longer one. More information about those will follow, after half term.

Some children have been coming into school wearing 'Kidizoom' watches. These are not appropriate wear for school as they contain both recording devices and cameras.

ATTENDANCE

Our target school attendance figure is 97%

Cluster events

We have two cluster events coming up before the end of this half term.

The Poetry Festival will take place at Southwood Hall on 5 and 6 February. We will be represented at each age group, in some form or other, though not all children will be involved. We shall be taking a group of pupils from Reception / Year 1 and 2 to perform a poem of their own choice, with gestures. We shall enter the same category with a large group from Year 4. The other contributions to the Festival will be individual pupils (or pairs) performing a poem of their own choice, again with dramatic gestures. Letters to those pupils involved will go out next week.

We shall be selecting two teams to represent the school at the cluster Tag Rugby tournament to be held on 15 February. Again, letters for those who have been selected will be sent out next week.

Norwich School choral project

Children who had showed a keen interest in being involved in the Norwich School choral project started learning their 3 songs on Tuesday afternoon, with Posy Walton, the Norwich School's very gifted choir leader and musician.

We will now practise these songs in school and have a further musical workshop after half term, before performing in the cathedral on 27 March, along with the other two schools involved.

We will also get the chance to hear the Norwich School choristers perform some songs.

Half term activities at the Norfolk Records Office Thursday 23 February 2 – 3.30pm

Use documents from the Record Office as an inspiration to invent your own board game. £3.50 per child. Under 3s free of charge. Children under 8 must be accompanied by an adult. Booking required. Please book on 01603 222599 or <http://archives.norfolk.gov.uk/events>

Grammar Corner

(from Oxford Owl)

This week's word: Preposition

What is it? A preposition usually comes before a noun or pronoun. It often shows place or direction. Some prepositions show time or cause.

Examples:

The piano ran down the street.

At that moment, a terrifying sound rippled along the length of the Green Dart.
