

Trengrouse Newsletter, 30.11.16

Hi there! Here is the home-learning for the following week. If you have any questions or queries please ask myself or Mrs Harding. NEXT WEEK IS ASSESSMENT WEEK, SO THE CHILDREN WILL HAVE A CHANCE TO SHOW OFF THEIR LEARNING IN READING, WRITING AND MATHS—a good breakfast and night's sleep each day will help them achieve this!

English/Topic

Please create a poem or short piece of writing explaining what Christmas means to you. You could try including some of the features listed below...

Maths

Reflect on the main areas of learning over the last term - looking back in your home-learning books will help. Here is a list of some things we have covered...

- Place Value - TH H T U
- Partitioning
- Number bars for addition and subtraction
- Multiplication - mental and written strategies including arrays, grid method and number bars.
- Times tables and other mental strategies.

Spellings Y4, apostrophe for contraction

Would not	wouldn't	Can you
They will	they'll	think of any
Will not	won't	words that
Do not	don't	fit this rule?

Spellings challenge silent letters!
And changing from root word to other related words.

environment - environmental government - governing - governed doubt - doubting - doubted resign - resigning - resigned

Make sure you know how to spell all the words in the Year 4 box - remember the rule and then put each word into its own sentence. Have a go at the challenge. spellings if you are confident!

Diary Dates/other news

- The Christmas Fair is approaching! It is Saturday 10th December, from 10am-12pm - we will be making our craft for the fair in the next couple of weeks!
- Next week is assessment week so please ask your children how they are feeling each evening - they should just try their best and use their learning over the term to support their ideas!

Next week's debate topic is... 'SATS and testing in school should be banned'