

Trengrouse Newsletter, 18.01.17

Hi there, here is the home-learning for the following week. If you have any questions or queries about the learning below, please ask myself or Mrs Harding. Many thanks, Mr Harris.

Maths:

If the pieces of paper below had been cut which one was longest?

Prove how you know using your fraction knowledge. Can you create your own similar problem?

English:

Imagine you are the husband or wife from 'O what is that Sound?'

Write a diary entry as one of them, the day after the husband leaves to escape the soldiers.

A copy of the poem can be found online...

<http://homepages.wmich.edu/~cooneys/poems/auden..sound.html>

Spellings - spellings from our poem, 'O what is that sound?'

Scarlet, manoeuvres, kneeling, reined, wounded, gateway, cunning, deceiving, splinter.

Spellings - challenge - words that can also be spelt differently for a different meaning

Proceed, principle, profit, stationary, allowed, weight, aloud

Choose 5 spellings from either list and put them into sentences!

Other news...

We will be conducting a science investigation into sound muffling next week and would greatly appreciate any resources you can spare - old clothes (that can be cut up), silver foil, cling film, cardboard, bubble wrap and any other materials you are happy to donate would be great.

Next week's debate topic: Should animals be used to test new products?
