

Immersive Curriculum

Our new immersive curriculum has got off to a great start over the beginning of the term. The children in KS2 have had a brilliant introduction to their World War II topic. Last week we saw them all dressed and treated like evacuees for three days and now this week they have had a fantastic time at Flambards WWII exhibition learning about the period. These experiences have really helped the children to engage in their topic and give them a deeper understanding of the time.

The children in Year 1 and 2 have also been immersing themselves in their topic this week! The children are learning all about The Great Fire of London and got first hand experience by working together to build their own cardboard houses in the style of the 1600s. They then got to see them burn on the playground just like the real thing! Fear not, we had the trusting Perranporth Fire Service on hand to ensure that everything was safely organised and controlled. This was a brilliant way of getting the children 'fired up' for their learning and wanting to find out more. A big thank you to the Fire Service for their support.

Class Dojo

For parents new to Perranporth School... we like to use a digital media platform called Class Dojo. This is a great way for teachers to share the different things that go on in the classroom each day with parents and families. There are also message facilities and many other useful tools too. So far the feedback from parents has been very positive indeed. So, if you haven't logged on to Class Dojo yet, look out for an email that should've been sent to all parents with sign up details, or have a chat to your child's teacher who should be able to help.

After School Clubs

After school clubs start next week. Letters have already gone home with sign up details. If you have not seen a letter please feel free to pop into the School Office to pick one up.

The Ultimate Bookworm Challenge

Reading is a vital skill and opens the world to our children. We want to encourage every child to read more often, to read more widely and to find something that they love reading. We also want to encourage our parents/carers to engage with the challenge, both by helping their child to find time and read good books, and by reading themselves.

The Ultimate Book Worm Challenge is Perranporth's way of engaging children in reading. To participate children need to read regularly and record reads with a comment from a parent/carer in their record book. Each significant number of reads then results in a special badge that children earn. When children receive a badge, they receive a special mention in our Friday Celebration Assembly. This year children will also have to complete reading challenges to earn the badges to become an 'Ultimate Bookworm'. As an Ultimate Bookworm, pupils are able to become honorary librarians, and are entered into a prize draw to win a runner up prize of £100 worth of books and a winning prize of a Kindle!

White Bookworm - 10 reads

Red Bookworm - 30 reads

Orange Bookworm - 50 reads

Yellow Bookworm - 100 reads

Bronze Bookworm - 125 reads and a book review (Children can collect review templates from their teacher or from Mrs Laity)

Silver Bookworm - 175 reads including two books from the 100 best children's book list

Gold Bookworm - 200 reads, including a book a member of your family read when they were a child

'Ultimate Bookworm' - 250 reads, including a classic (KS2) and a book written by a recommended author.

So let's get reading!
