

Reception Class Flowers

The children in Trevithick Class were very lucky this week because Miss Grant (Pixie's mum) very kindly came into school to talk to the children all about being a florist! She showed the children how to tie a bouquet, and she even gave them all a bunch of chrysanthemums to take home! Everyone found the session enormously interesting and were very happy indeed with their flowers. We'd like to say a huge thank you to Miss Grant for such a wonderful morning. Thank you!

Diamond 6 T-Shirts

Our new Diamond 6 children are looking super smart around school now as their splendid Diamond 6 t-shirts have arrived! The children were thrilled and very proud to be able to wear their special uniform and it also helps us all to be able to identify these very important helpers in our school too.

G7 Children's Art Competition

Do you fancy having your artwork showcased at the G7 Summit meeting?

The Prime Minister will be choosing a poem and works of art submitted by young people in Cornwall to create a card to welcome world leaders to the G7 Summit in June.

Cornwall Council has teamed up with the Cabinet Office to launch two competitions: one for primary aged children and the other for secondary aged children.

The younger age group will be invited to submit artwork around the theme of climate change and preserving biodiversity.

The older age group will be asked to write a poem on the same subjects. All the entries will be assessed by a judging panel in Cornwall before Downing Street has the final say on the winner.

Cornwall Council Service Director for Education Kate Evan-Hughes said: "This is a fantastic opportunity for young people in Cornwall to get creative, whilst delivering an important message to some of the world's leaders."

"The competitions are open to anyone of school age and you can enter through a school, youth group or as an individual."

The project is being coordinated with the support of Kernow Education Arts Partnership (KEAP).

Pictures must be at least A4 in size and poems are open to creativity. Entries must be submitted the 4th of May through the online form on this website: <https://www.y7cornwall.co.uk/world-leaders-will-be-welcomed-to-cornwall-by-cornish-creative-projects>
