Friday 29th January

Thank you for continuing to support your child with their home learning. PLEASE remember that we are required to 'see' the children once a week. If this does not happen, we have to share this information with the educational welfare officer.

Please let us know if you are having issues with teams and we will support you.

Update from Welsh Government

Kirsty Williams has released a statement confirming that the current arrangements for schools will remain in place. If rates of the virus continue to fall, WG plan for pupils to begin returning to school from the 22nd February, starting with Primary School children. Schools will receive a further update before half term. I will continue to provide information to you all as I receive it.

Attendance at school- Update from Welsh Government

'Schools and settings should speak to parents/carers to identify whether their work is critical to the COVID-19 response and to determine whether their children need to go to school. Parents/carers who are critical workers should, however, keep their children at home if they can. We know that every school will have a different number of children of critical workers who need to attend. It is important that on-site education is provided for these learners.'

The law only requires one parent to be a critical worker for the obligation to make arrangements to apply. However, the guidance is clear that although children can have a place, it is not guaranteed.'
Operational Guidance- Last updated 27th January
