Work through the following steps to help you plan your own story.

Step 1

Who are your characters? Create two characters, tell me eight facts about them and draw a picture of each.

Character 1 is called:

Character 2 is called:

Step 2

You now have two amazing characters for your story. Next step is the setting!

Where is your story going to be set? Is it night or day? What is the weather like? What can your characters see? Hear? Smell? Feel? Touch?
Draw your setting and then write down as many facts as you can about it.
