

Boris and Sid meet a shark

Story by Ruth Merttens
Illustrated by Anne Holm Petersen

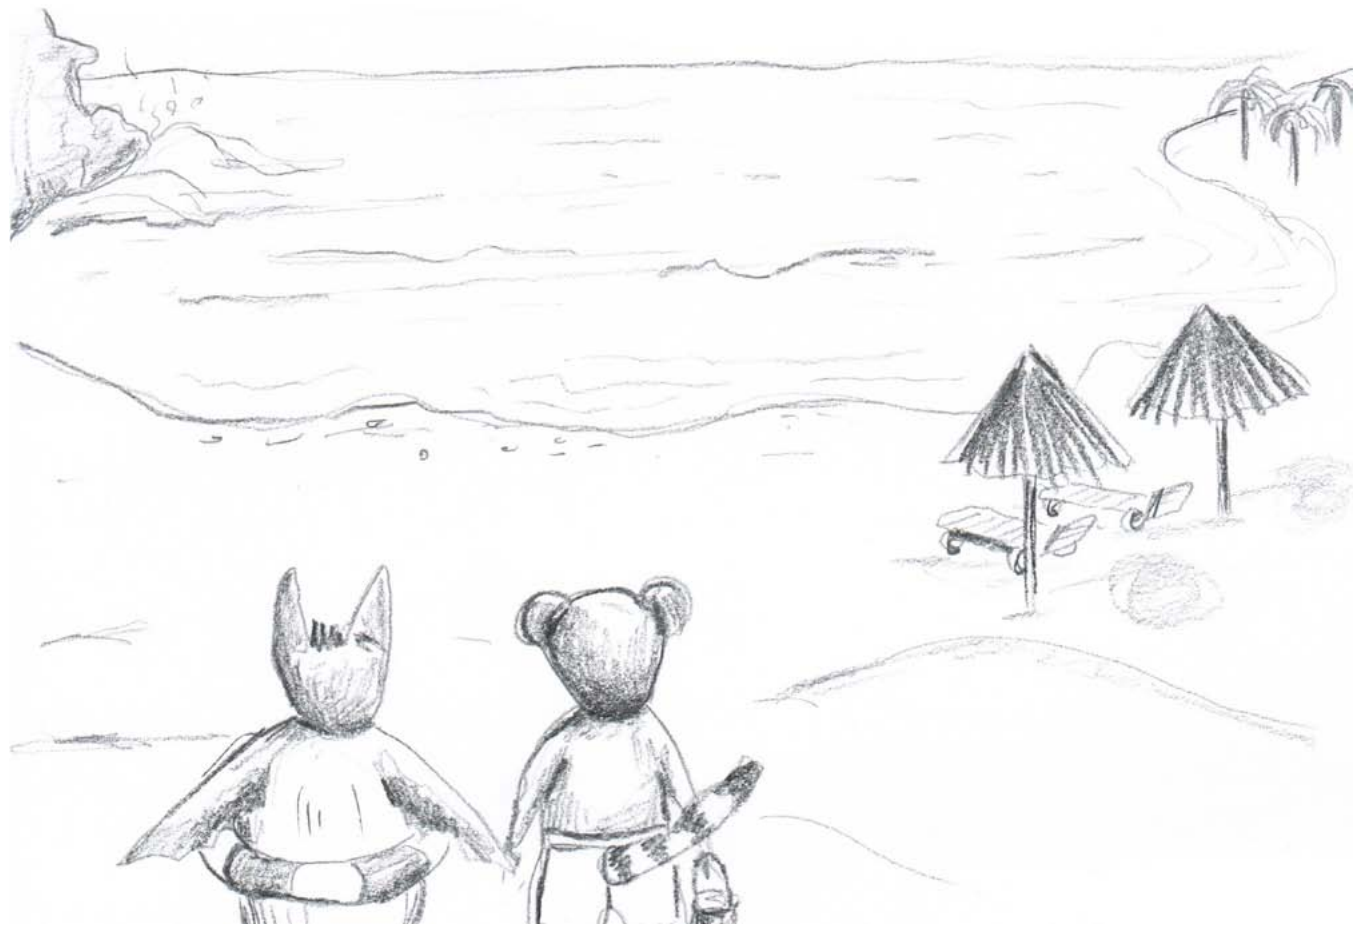

Boris and Sid go on holiday.
They go on a plane.

They stay near a beach.

It is massive! It has rocks and sand and bumpy grass and trees.

“It is just grand!” they tell
each other. “Brill!”

Boris is really happy playing in the sand
with his bucket and spade.
He makes big castles.

Sid is very happy fishing in the rock pools with his net. He catches crabs and small reed-fish in the seaweed.

But Boris and Sid are very VERY happy when they are swimming in the sea.

Boris and Sid splash and splash. They have fun!

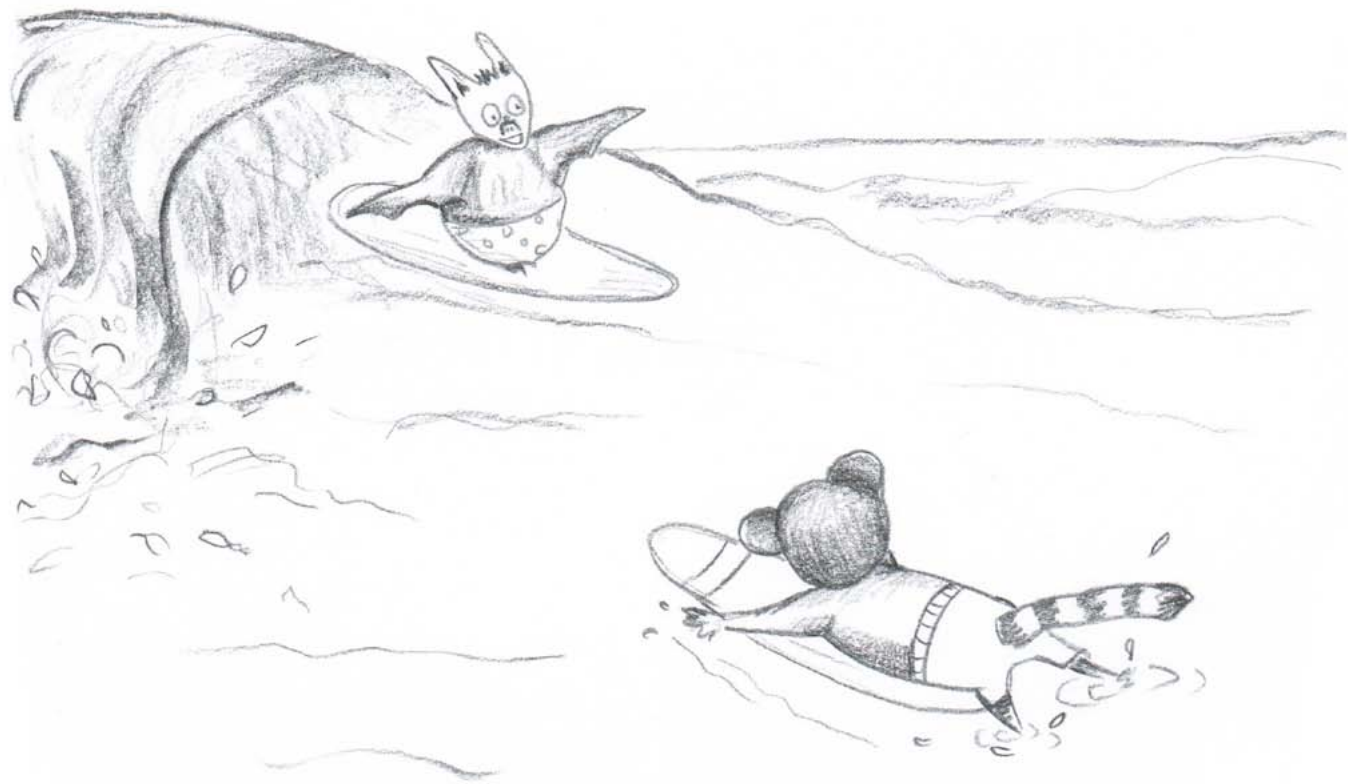

They play ball...

They sail along the waves, slipping in and out of the sea really fast!

It is hard to stay standing up. Boris falls off! Sid falls off!
They crash into the waves.

Boris screams! Sid shouts!
But it is really fun. They are so happy.

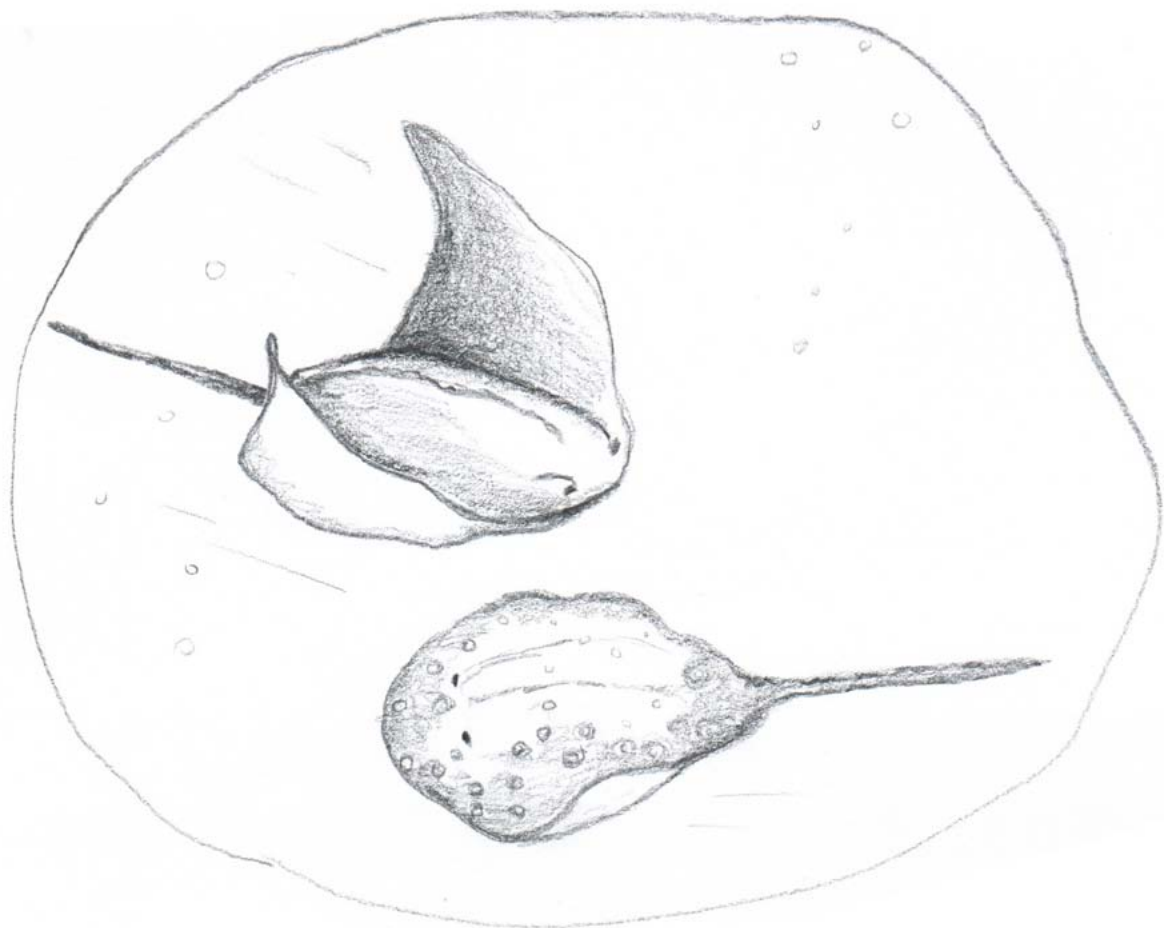

Boris and Sid get very good at swimming. They go snorkelling under the sea to look at the fish.

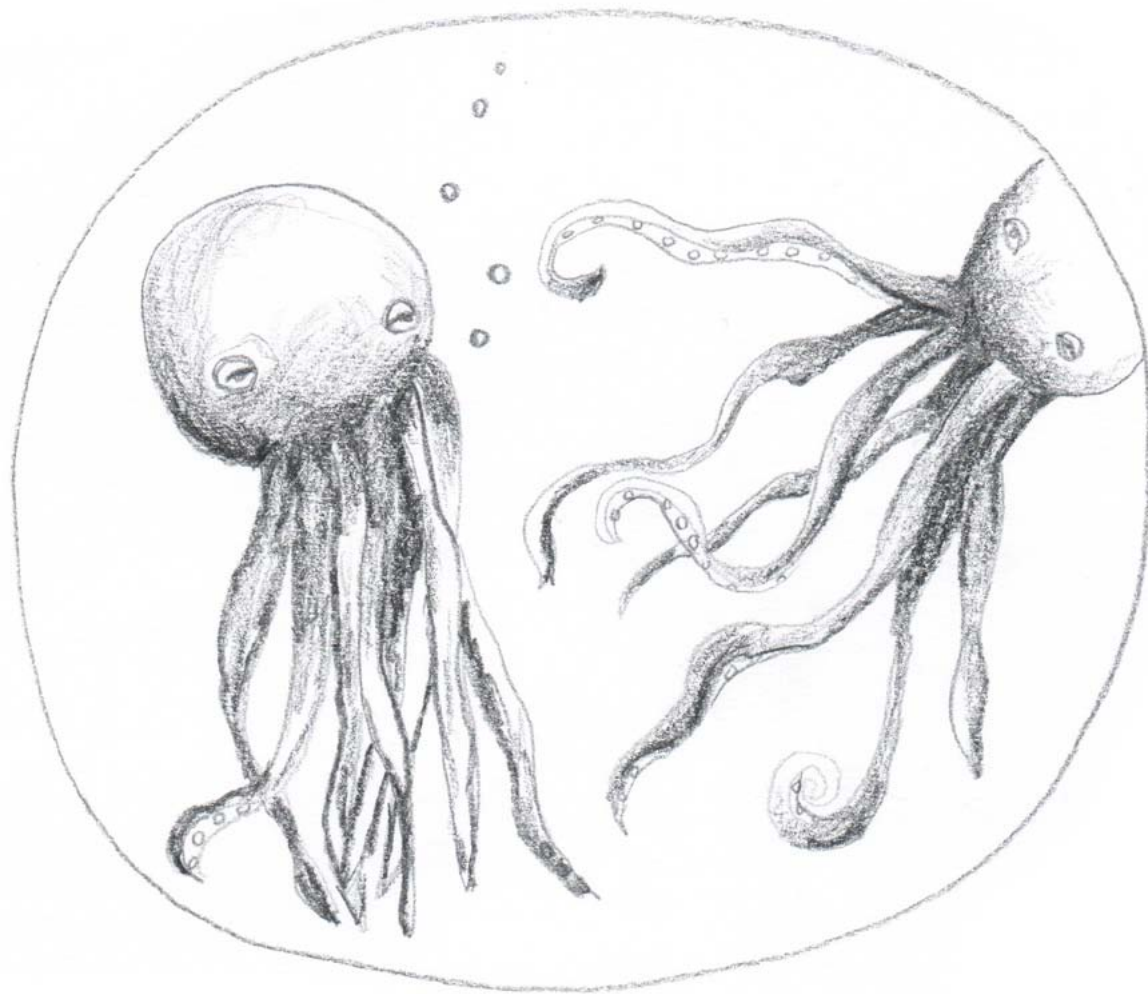

They see rays.

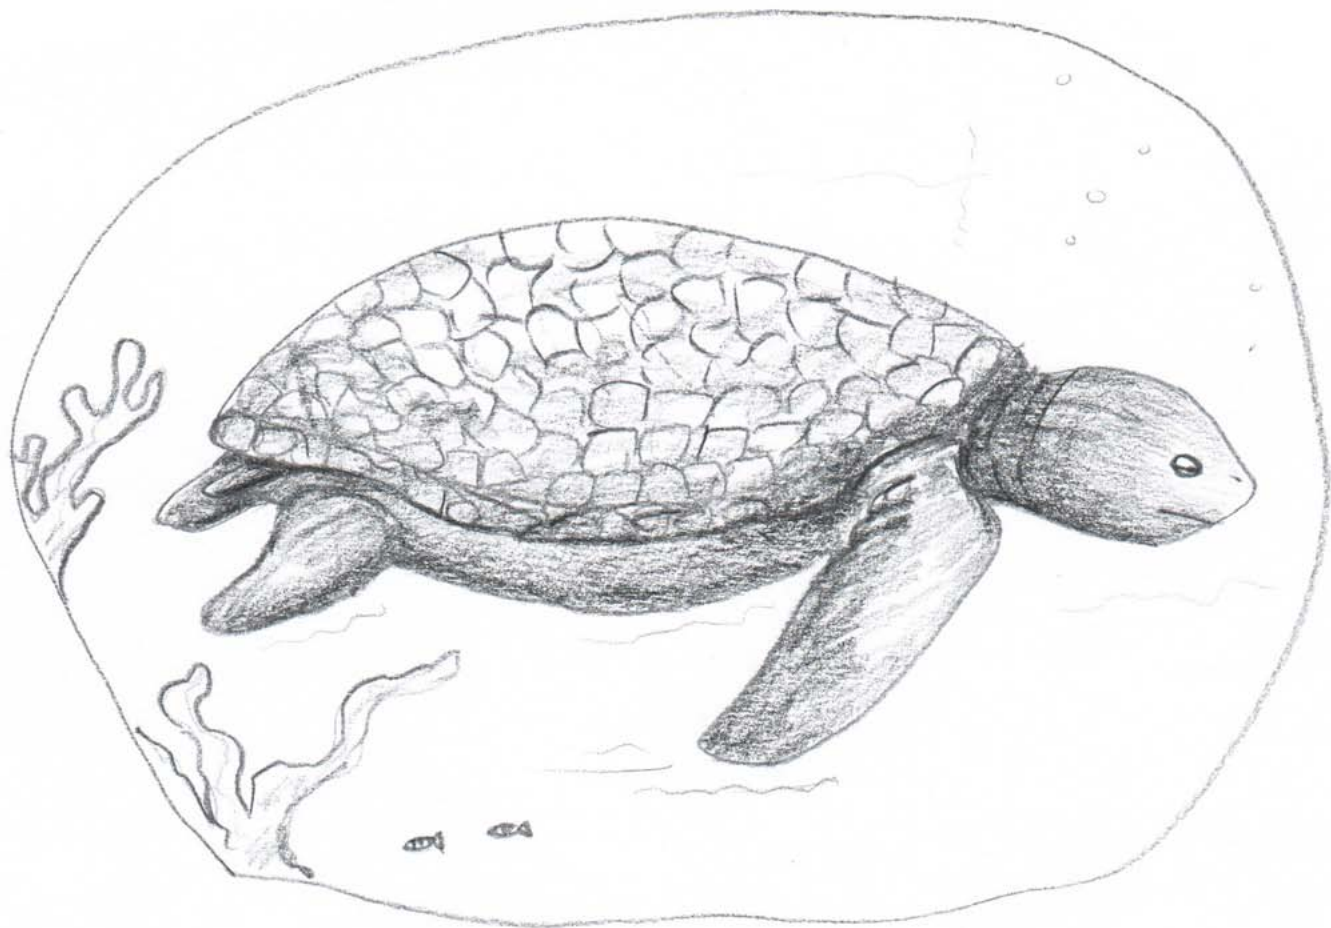

They see octopus.

They see starfish.

They see turtles. And, one day, they see ...

... a shark!
