The next two weeks, your English activities will all be linked to Horrid Henry!

The first Horrid Henry story we want you to watch and read is Horrid Henry's Underpants. You can find the YouTube link here.

Activity 1: Comprehension

1. Find the definition of the word 'loot'.
2. Can you think of another word that means 'swaggered'?
3. Name some presents that Henry was hoping Great Aunt Greta was going to send him.
4. Where does Henry hide the pants?
5. Why does Henry hide the pants from Rude Ralph?
6. Why do you think that Henry punched Weepy William?
7. Find the definition of the word 'yanked'.
8. Can you find a word or phrase that shows us that Miss Battle Axe is angry?
9. On page 55, why does Henry say he will look after Peter?
10. On page 57, why does Henry's heart go cold?

Activity 2: Can you find...?

1. Can you find a fronted adverbial in the story? An example is 'Half- asleep, he reached inside his underwear drawer,'

You can have a refresh of fronted adverbials with this Bitesize Daily lesson.

2. Can you find some examples of direct speech?
There are two Bitesize Daily lessons to help you here and here.

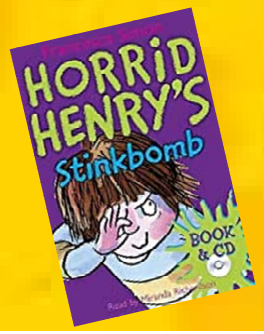

3. Can you find an example of different sized writing being used? CAPITAL LETTERS? Italics? Or maybe even a different font?
Why do you think the author has done this?
How many examples can you find?

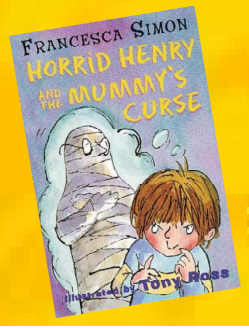

Activity 3: Book Review

Read another Horrid Henry story. You might have one in your house that you can choose. If not, there are several to choose from here. Or you can use the Norfolk Online Library via the Overdrive or Libby app. You do need to have a library card and account for this.

You can create your own template, or there is a link to a book review template on the class page.

Activity 4: Characters

What do you notice about the characters' names in Horrid Henry?
Tough Toby, Rude Ralph, Tidy Ted, Weepy William and Dizzy Dave are some examples.

They all use alliteration and their names match their personalities.

In the story, Graham doesn't have an extra name. It could be Goalie Graham because he is playing football.
Can you invent a new friend (or enemy) for Henry?

Remember to use alliteration!

Ms Margerum and I have come up with our own Horrid Henry characters.

We have included images and some descriptions of them on the next page.

Can you e-mail us to tell us what you think their alliteration names are and what they are like?

We will let you know the answer next week!
